AARON ANDLauer

MIKAYLA BACA

After I finish high school, I'm thinking about going to cosmetology school. One thing I like to do is other people's hair and make-up. I do it pretty good too! Every time my little cousins come over, they ask me to do their hair for them...well, to practically give them make-overs. It actually relaxes me and I have fun doing that. And that's what I want to do when I get out of high school.

LYDIA BILLINGTON

I want to be a writer, a musician, a photographer, an actress, a model, a tattoo artist, a bartender, and, at some point, have my own cafe/lounge/hookah bar. Of course I won't be doing these things all at once, but these are all the things I'd love to do for the rest of my life. These are my aspirations.

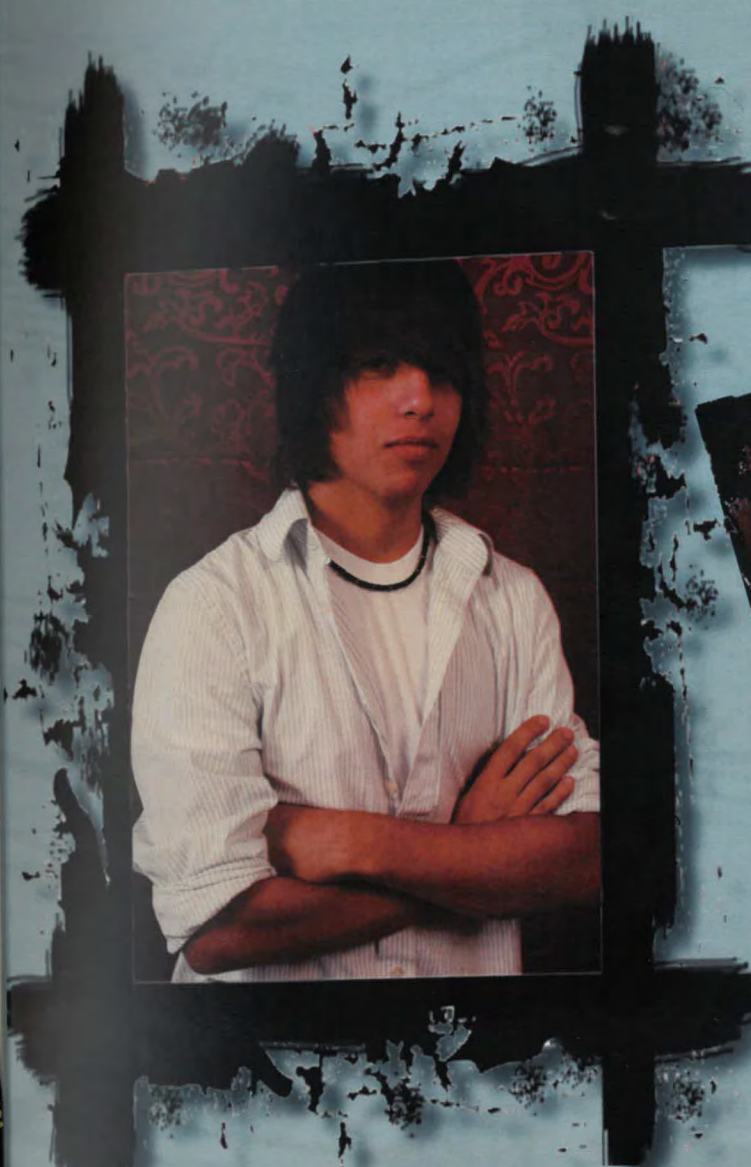

KATIE BRISCOE

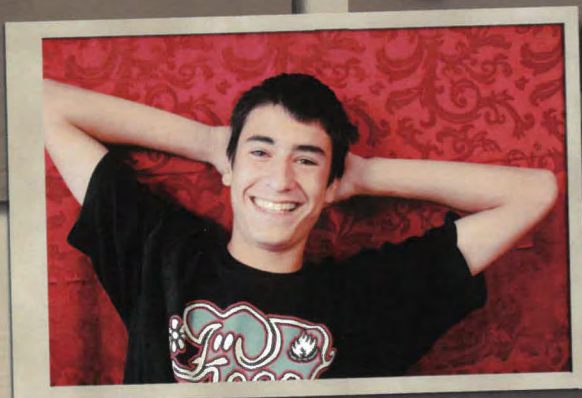

BREC BURNETT

NICK C DE BACA

At the moment, I don't have a career that I would like to persue after high school. I really love to skateboard and I would like to keep that up and going. If I had to choose a job, it would probably be a construction worker, mainly for the building of concrete skateparks.

"I really love to skateboard and would like to keep that up."

CHRISTIAN CHAVEZ

After I finish high school, I want to have fun for awhile, go to parties, and be with friends and family. Later, I would like to go to college and study. I want to become famous and be a musician. I would like to sing rock en Espanol.

SPENCER CLAIBORNE

"America!"

After I graduate from high school, I will get a job in a large corporation, and I will work my way to the top. I would rebrand the company into one that would have a reason to buy up all necessities, like health care, water, food, land, and energy. I will use the resources as a very large bargaining chip to unite the world's governments into one corporate entity. The company would employ 25% of the world's workforce, and focus training first-time workers into a job position, so we could have a very stable and dedicated workforce.

Of course, I doubt that I could accomplish any of this without a college education. I plan to start college straight out of high school and finish before I'm 24 (Bachelor's in marketing, Master's in business, Doctorate in economics). My plan for world "unity" (buzzword for domination) doesn't work out, but I will have a possibility for a career in many other areas.

I plan to employ people from my childhood and teenage years in my world corporation, such as my best friend, Katie Quesnell (pg. 58) as Director of Child Relations, that seems to be the career path she wants to follow as well.

All in all, like the spirit of America, I will be successful, and with the right spirit, drive, and creative ideas, I know that I will achieve my goals.

CHRIS COYNE

What I see myself doing when I get out of high school is to go to a four-year technical college such as the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, New Mexico Institute of Technology, or Cal Tech. I will get an advanced degree in computer science.

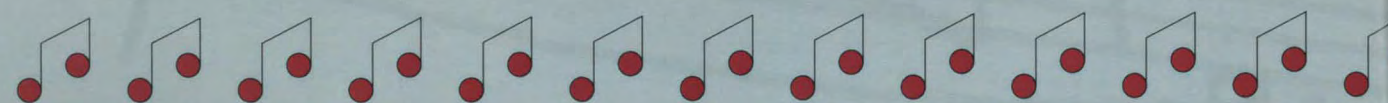

LJ CROUTHER

When I'm done with high school, I want to go to college, try as many things as I can, master as many things as I can, graduate, travel the world, publish my books/comics, be part of at least two movies, become a ninja, stalk my favorite actors, force one of them to have glorious babies (or not) with me...and then buy a nice vacation unit for my parental units. I have SO much more I want to list, but I fear I'm out of short things to say. If you want to know the rest, you know who I am. I'm exceedingly easy to spot when I'm not being sneaky.

LUKINA CUNNINGHAM

TRISTAN DAVIS

I have three plans for the future. One of them is to become a famous driver for team Subaru's world rally crew. I have been a fan of rally racing ever since I heard about it and would love to race for my favorite team. My second goal is to become an international D.J., sharing trance and techno music around the world. My last goal is to animate and program video games and eventually become the owner of my own company producing games for multiple platforms.

ANDREW DENAS

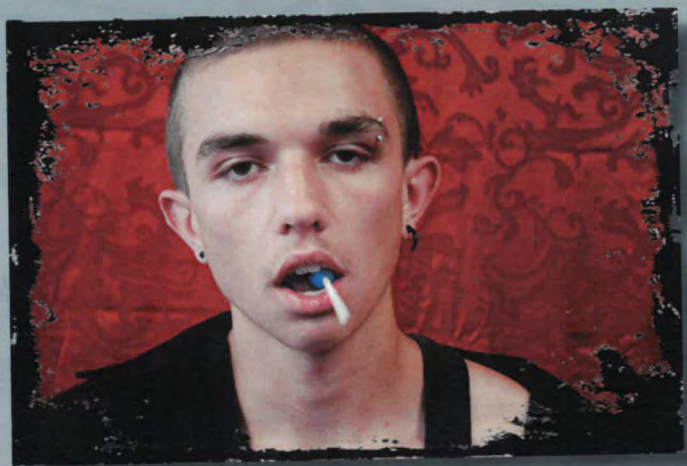

LIU DI NINGRAT

JESSIE FOSTER

When I grow up I want to be a serial killer or maybe I could sell drugs for a living. I could also be a fireman, that might be nice. Art is another road I could take because I'm told that I'm good at it. I like the underground music scene, so I would like to start rappin'...ya... that might work! But really, I have no idea what I want to be. I wish I did, 'cuz my time is running out and I need to make a choice right now! But how?! Oh! Maybe I could be the President of the United States, or I could rot up in the pen. Everything is possible. The world is mine...

PRESTON FRAZIE

After high school, I hope to go to college and major in game development. Hopefully, I can get a job after college with a major video game company. I would mostly like to make first person shooter games and MMO RPG games.

At first, I was thinking about being a model, but then I realized I'm too short, so I changed my mind and started thinking more seriously about being an artist, a singer or an actor. Right now, that's what I want. After I graduate from high school, I'm going to take a break from school and, after a year or less, I'm going to make my way into a college that has acting classes. If I don't do that, I'm just going to study cosmetology and open my own place to work.

"I'll make my way into college..."

CRISSETT GALLIARZA

ALEJANDRO GARCIA

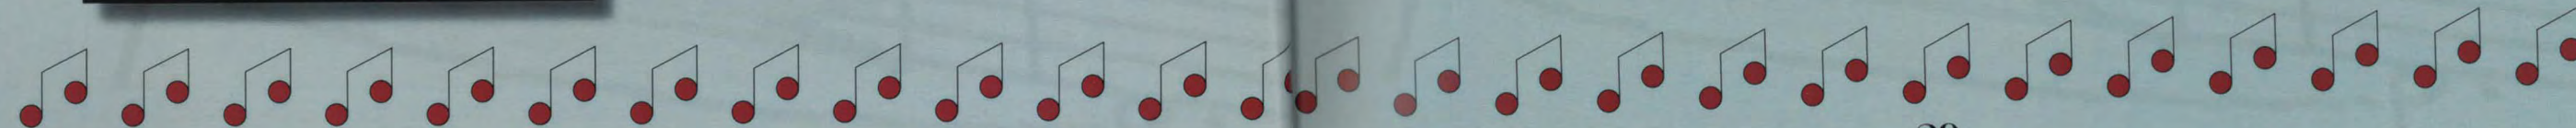

After high school, I'd like to get a VX100 Sony camera with a death lens or a fish eye and film some skateboarding in Albuquerque. Maybe move in with my friends or brother and maintain my sponsorship and keep skating and have fun. I would also like to learn how to edit skate videos well enough to make montages and videos for the local skate shops. Also, I'd like to get a part-time job at a skate shop to be able to help pay the rent and help out whomever I live with. Maybe I'll move to California.

ALEXIS GARCIA

When I finish high school, I plan on having a career in television or movie production. If not that, then I'd like to be a music producer. But yeah, I'm really into making films and music. I also might have a little photography job on the side because photography is really awesome. All I know is that I won't be jobless and I will be successful.

DANIEL

GARCIA

After high school, I plan to go to college. I don't know where I want to attend, but there are many options that I would want to look at. Being a foreign exchange student would be a fun. Even going to a college in New York or California would interest me. I think I will decide later, when I actually know what I'm going to be when I get older.

"New York or California would interest me."

RAEHNA GARCIA

AMBER

GREENE-WIMBERLEY

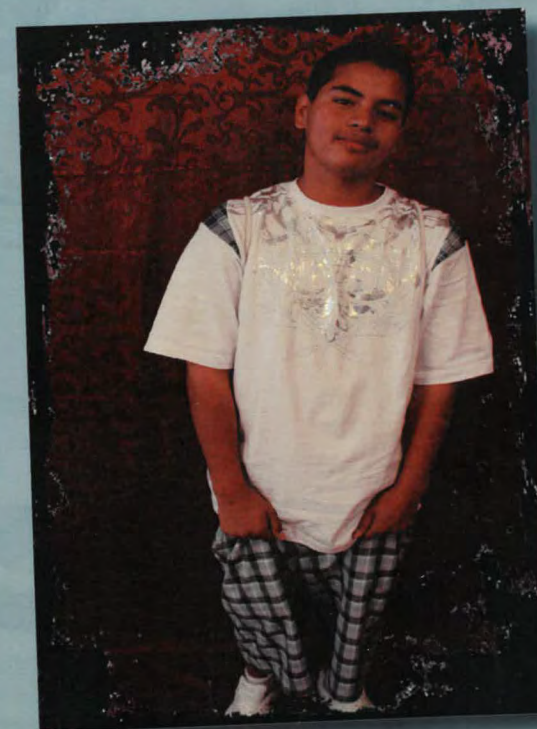

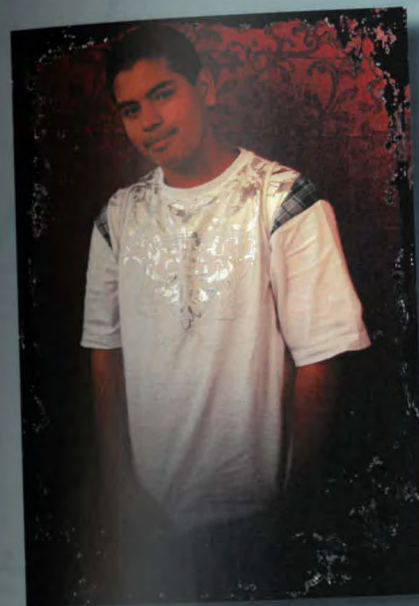

What I was thinking about doing after high school is maybe going to college for graphic design, interior design, or business and management. I was also thinking about owning my own day care facility and writing stories. If I don't want to do that, I will have my own clothing line. I will try and get an acting career while I'm working on the rest of my career. I also want to write and sing my own songs. I have a lot that I'm thinking about doing. I hope I get the career I will enjoy.

EDGAR

GUTIERREZ

After I finish high school, I would like to go to a good college, not to study, but to party. Well, sometimes to study because I would like to get a good job so that when I grow up I will be able to support my family so I can get them a good life and a good home. The job that I would like to have when I grow up would be a contractor.

CLARA HASTINGS

My grandfather once told me that I could be anything that I want to be if I worked towards my dream. He said life was like climbing a mountain, but at the peak of the mountain, if I kept walking and did not give up, I would realize that dream. After high school, I want to go to Juilliard in New York City. I want to have the opportunity to dance, to travel, and to experience life. After I do these things, I want to open a dance studio, teaching young girls the beauty of dance. I want to show them that they could be whatever they want to be. I will teach them that they can dream and they can believe in themselves no matter what others think of them.

JOE HOTCHKISS

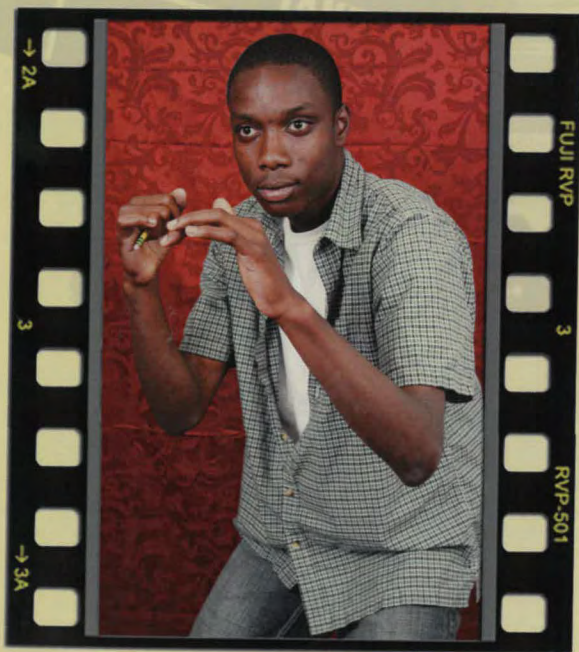

After high school, I want to get an apartment and work as a graffiti artist and spray paint walls with my work, or make hip-hop beats/instrumentals and sell them to music artists. In my spare time, I'll be outside skateboarding or just kickin' back with my friends. I'd also like to get a camera and skate spots and film the spots I skate.

SEBASTIAN JACKSON

TABATHA JOHNSON

After high school, I want to go to college. I would like to major in film production. I want to graduate from college. I would also like to move to either California or New York, and get a job in film production. I want to work on comedy films.

KIRA KELSEY

When I get out of high school (finally), I have some options. Music has always been a passion of mine. The locals of the 505 have been absolutely amazing to me, and I want to follow and help them get to the top. Love you guys! Another pathway

I have as an option is animation. Hopefully I'll get some job in the anime industry. I want to thank my friends, Hit By A Bus... you rock! The United, we miss you! Vertigo Venus, Diverge, and all the local bands, I love you guys and maybe we'll be on the same stage eventually.

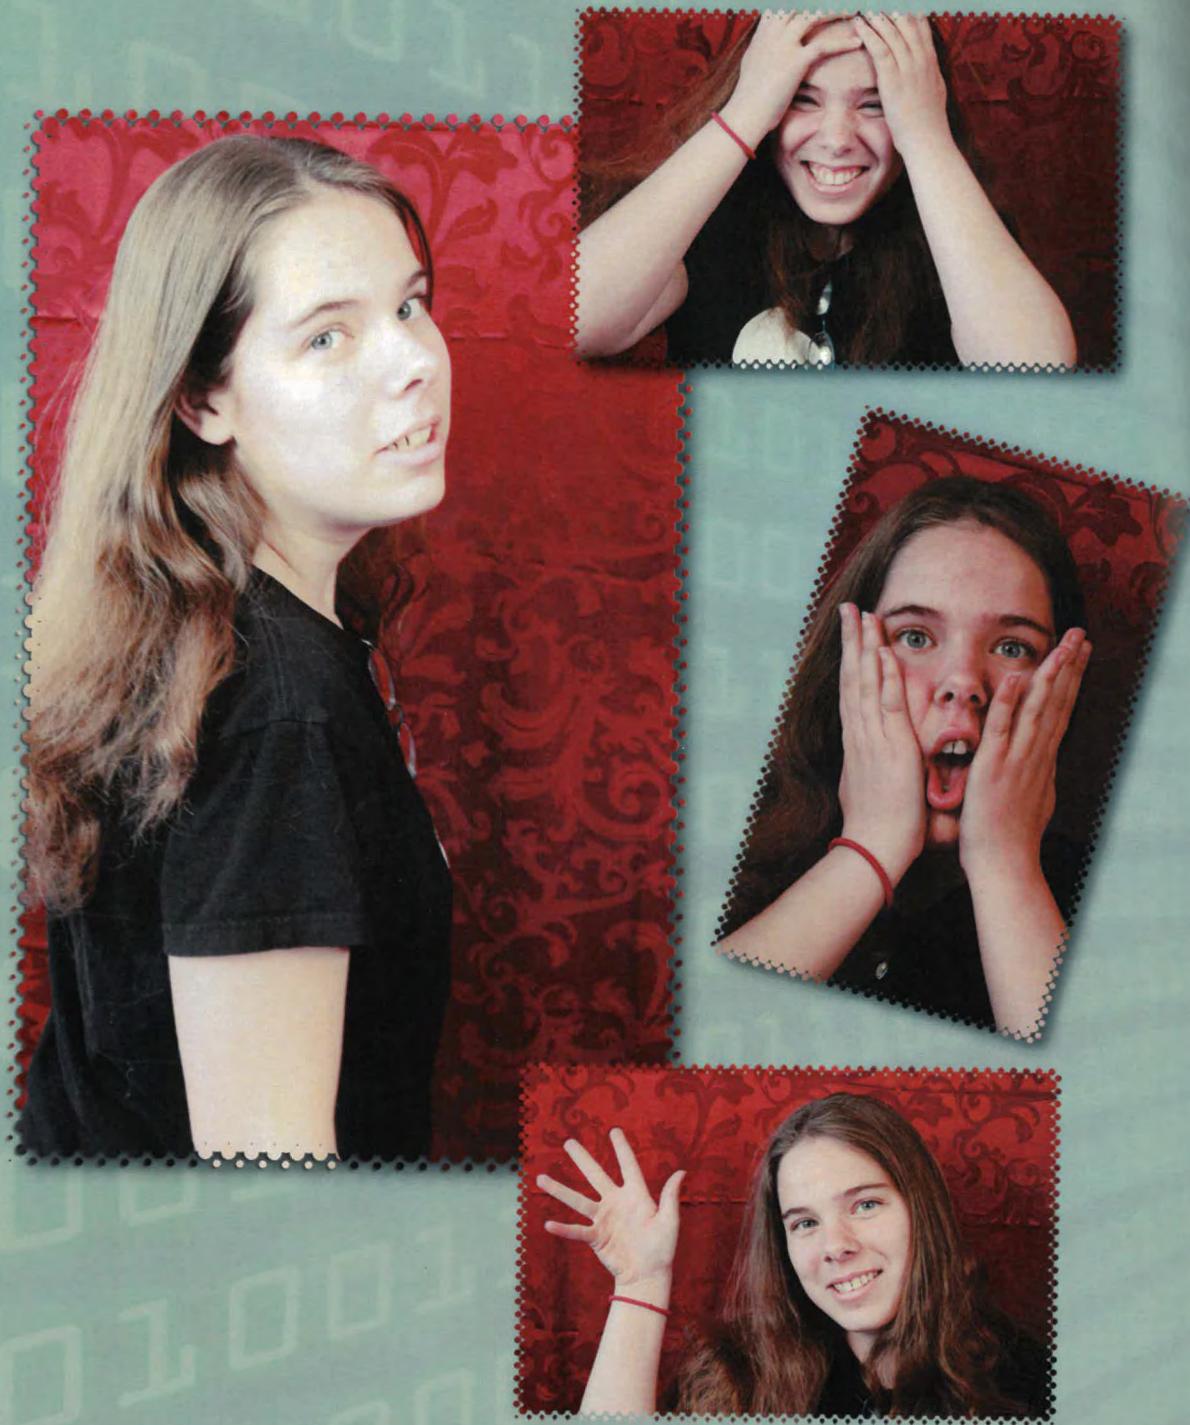

After high school, I would like to go to college. There is a really nice college in San Francisco that my mother told me about. She said it is supposed to be one of the best media colleges in the world. If I can't get into college, I plan to start my film career in New Mexico or go back to L.A. After that, I am going to save enough money to move to Japan, where I will continue my career. I plan to have a small house in Tokyo with a good view of Mt. Fuji. I would like to have a Koi pond, Sakura trees, and a real Katana. They're crazy dreams, but I once heard that they are the best kind.

CALLIN KOSMAN

TAYLOR KOSMAN

I plan on beginning the nursing program at CEC this coming fall. I will also be taking media communication classes while here at MACCS. I definitely want to become a maternity nurse or a pediatrician. But I also definitely plan on finishing high school at MACCS with some knowledge of media communications.

“Shut the front door!”

SHAUNA LAWLER

After high school I hope to be done with most of college and making a good life for myself. I can hardly wait to be bragging about it at our high school reunion. I don't need to be rich, but as long as I'm happy with where I will be, I'm sure I will live through whatever obstacles cross my path. I hope to see people in the future and good luck to everyone else.

Once I graduate from here I'm going to take about a year off. You know, kick it. Take a break from all that school stuff. Once my year break is up, I'm going to UNM. I don't know what kind of classes I will take, but hey, I'm sure I'll find a class I will like..

PRESTON MARSHALL

After high school I would like to get married. I want to go into college and work towards becoming a journalist or something to do with writing. Once I get out of college I want to have four kids or so, maybe more. I want to get enough money to take a family vacation to another country like Ireland or something of that sort. I want to live in Florida or California if I can support my family there. I will not be living in New Mexico longer than my 21st birthday. I hope to die of old age so I can be a great grand parent.

"I love

PATRICK MARTIN

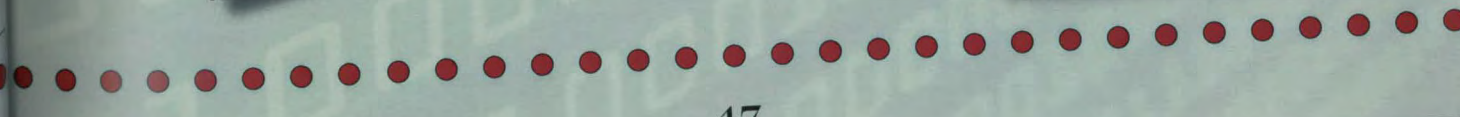

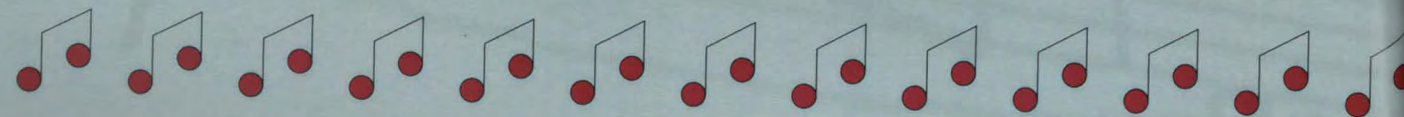

When I get out of high school, I think I'll travel approximately 20,000 leagues under the sea. I will then live there for about forty years fighting off Krakens and toxic octopi that excrete radiation upon death. I will then resurface and by then the Karkens will have evolved and grown wings because of all the radioactive octopi in the sea. I'd like to believe this is a post-apocalyptic world in which it is just a small colony of people and myself. I will have to join this colony of people to fight off the flying Krakens and the humans they control using neurotoxins. The colony and I will most likely die, but it's a risk we'll have to take.

FORREST MARTINEZ

TYLER MARTINEZ

When I finish high school, I want to go to the university in Hawaii and be an underwater videographer and marine biologist. I am already a diver and being here should set me up for what I want to do. I want to do marine biology and document it on video.

My goal as soon as I graduate from high school is to become a professional photographer. I also hope to go to a good college to learn as much as I can about photography.

"My goal is to become a professional photographer..."

AMAYRANY MURILLO

When I graduate high school, I want to go to California with my best friend. I want to go to college there and study cosmetology because I think I could give some people good advice. If that doesn't work, then I want to be a pediatrics doctor because I love babies and kids and I want to help them.

ZACH MURPHY

When I get out of high school I would like to turn the world into one big rave. Everyone would be one big family and live by "plur": peace love unity and respect. I would like to move to Italy and have a family and just live my life.

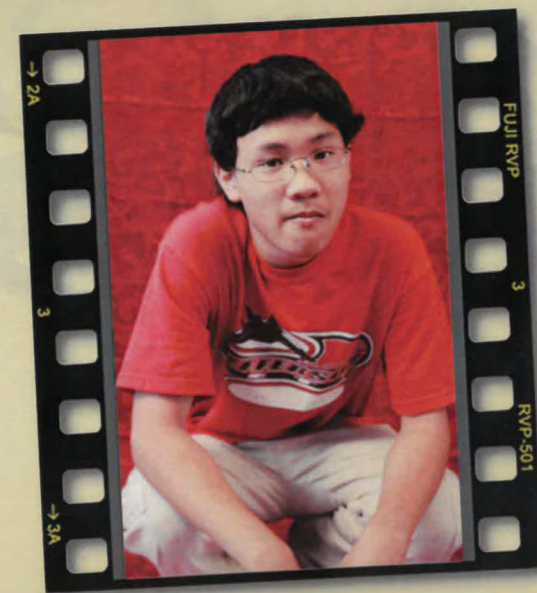

TEO
NGUYEN

After high school, I'd like to learn how to play many different exotic instruments. I have already learned how to play two instruments from the orient--the Thai dulcimer and the Banduria--which are Thai and Philip-pino instruments. I hope to learn how to play instruments from Vietnam, Hawaii, China, Japan, and from any other oriental countries. Exotic instruments are more exciting to me than other instruments. The exotic instruments just have a different feeling and sound to them that really interests me.

"If you are what you eat, then you are awesome!" -- Blake's Lotaburger

FELICIA ORTIZ

When I finish high school, I want to get a small job that pays alright and save enough money to get a new car. After that, I want to go to college in the state. I don't really know what I want to go to school for, but I know that I'm into music, cosmetology, massage therapy, and photography.

Once I get out of high school, I want to apply to a college out of state. I am not sure which one yet. My sister Amayrany and I are hoping to find a school in California. I want to go to a photography school or a media school like this one. I want to enter my photography into art galleries while I am in college, and hopefully someone will want to buy my pictures. In the future, I'm hoping to be a high fashion photographer and be one of the best.

ERREN PAADITIA

When I graduate from high school, I plan to continue my education by going to college. I'm not sure which college I will attend, but I plan to get a double major in theater arts and early childhood education. I hope to go to college out of state. After graduating from college I hope to become a teacher and possibly open a preschool/daycare in my home. I also hope to act as much as possible on the side. Another goal of mine is to start a family and possibly get married. I also hope to own a home. Also taking over the world and brainwashing everyone is an option. I think that it would be a great idea and a great use of my time. I think that it would be a very exciting thing to do.

ANTHONY SANCHEZ

REANNINA SANCHEZ

Once I finish high school, I want to take a year to go and travel around Europe. When I get back I want to get a Bachelors in Arts and Theatre. I want to be an actress, but I know that I'll have to get past my shy side. Once I achieve my dream, I want to become a first grade teacher because I like teaching little kids.

KASEY SMITH

EZEKIEL STRAHAN

ALEXA THOMAS

When I get out of high school I'm going to go to UNM and get my Bachelors degree in music. I hope to be a successful recording artist and/or a producer. I plan on winning at least one GRAMMY before I'm 25. The dream I know will happen is to be a mom. I want to have at least four kids. I also want to be a talent scout. If my dream of becoming a singer can't come true I can help kids achieve their goals.

My plan after high school is to get my medical degree in college. The reason I want to become a doctor is because I like helping people. If I do complete my goal to become a doctor, I will be doing something I like and getting paid. I think doctors are heros because they save many lives. Therefore my goal is to become a doctor and save as many lives as I can.

RICHARDO

JOSEPH

TRUJILLO

When I get out of high school, I think I will be making video games and I would love to make them. One of the other things I would like to do is be a pro-video gamer, because I am already good at it. To be a pro gamer, I would have to train and practice at a lot of different games, or maybe be good at just one game like Halo. Becoming a pro gamer means that I would have to enter a lot of competitions and win them all, and that's what I want to do.

Hello, my name is Julian Trujillo. I'm 16 years old, I'm just a kid who loves the arts. Music and painting are my life. I love to skate! My favorite kind of music is hard core Krunk! I love all music...except country (ewww!). Someday, I'm gonna be a star on tour with Victory Records bands. I want to go to college at New York University, majoring in Art. If you don't like me or you're reading this, remember me through quote... "Remember me! Remember my face! Remember my name! 20 bucks says you'll remember me, when you see me on your T.V. screen, it may be the first time, but it won't be the last time." (A.D.T.R.)

What I plan to do after I graduate high school is leave the state and go to U.C.L.A. After I graduate from college, I would like to intern on a movie set and, hopefully, become a director. I would also like to make my first good movie by 2024. Then I plan to get rich. I would like to move to Hollywood, Hawaii and Ireland. I would like to become a movie producer and eventually work in the U.K.

JUSTIN BATCHELOR

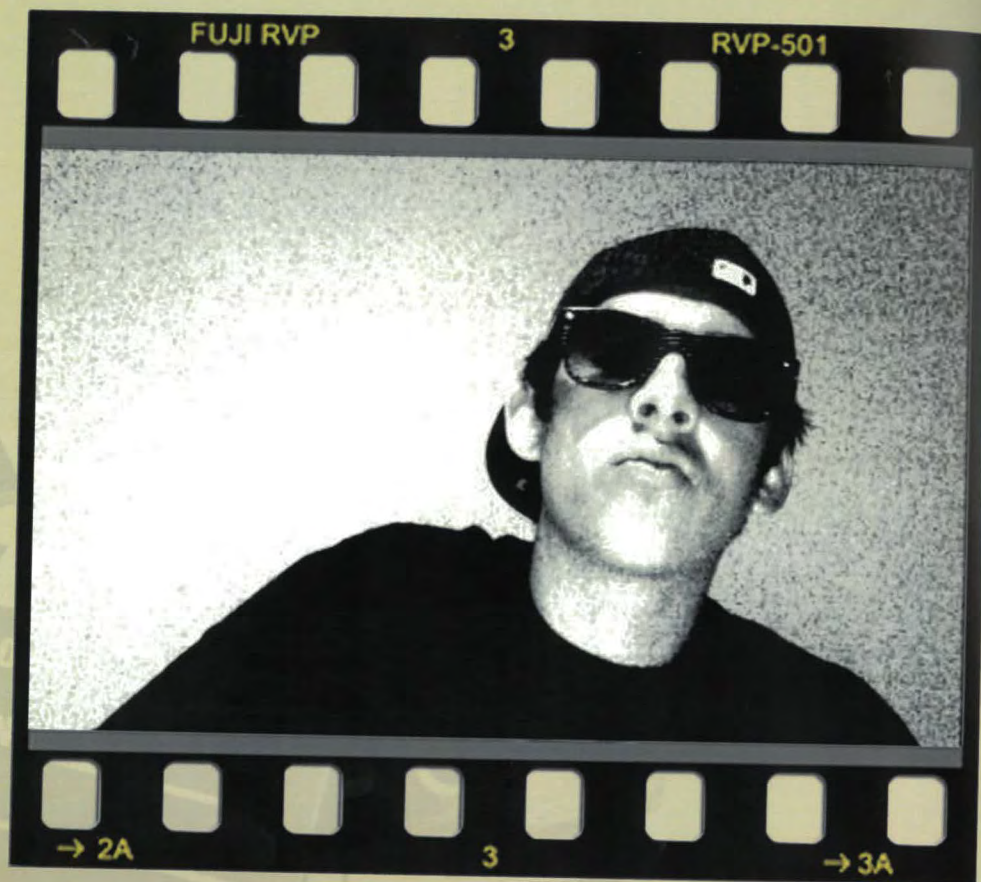

JUSTIS BIGGART

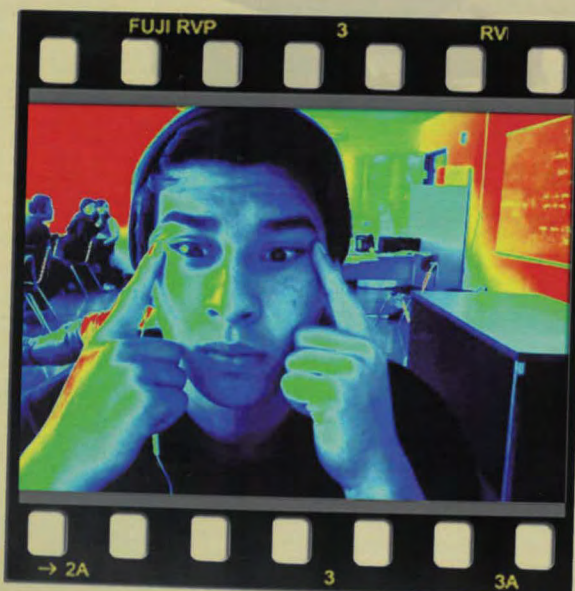

My life after high school will be very simple. I plan on going to college and studying video game design. After graduating, I hope to move to California and get a job with either Konami or Atlus. I will eventually retire and return to New Mexico where I plan on becoming an author.

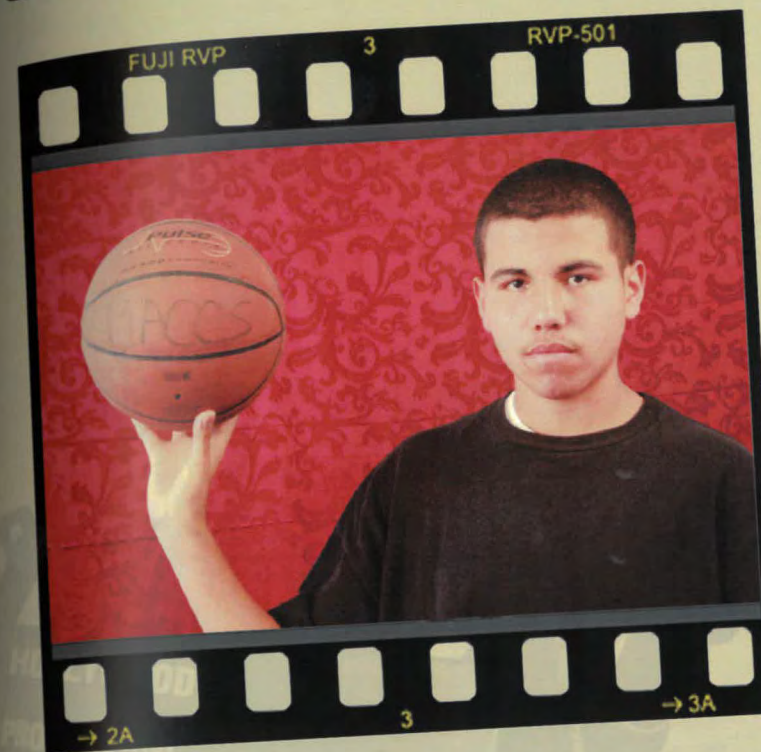

XACHARY BRANCH

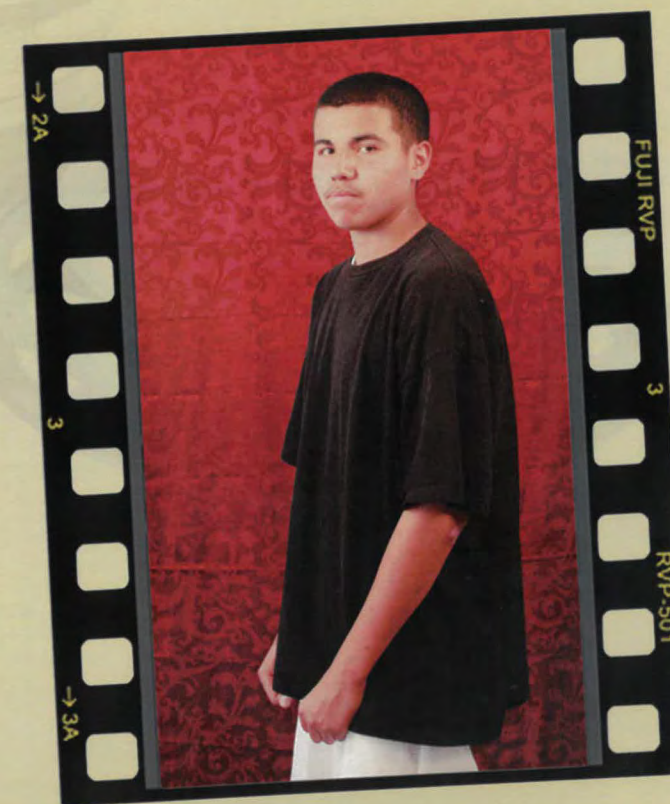

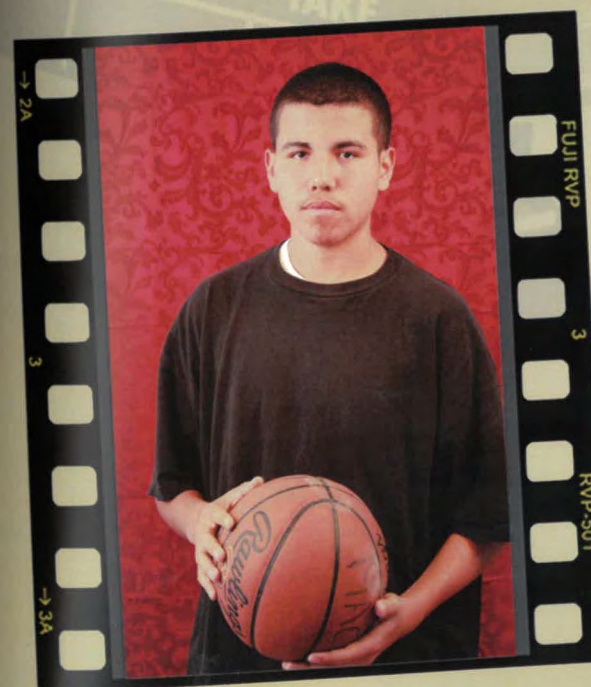

I want to be a director/writer, but not just any director, one who does films with meaning. My anti-hero is Michael Bay. I want to be the exact opposite of him. I would rather be a poor film maker who makes good films than a mega rich block-buster maker who makes films that have no meaning and rely on fancy special effects.

IVAN CASADO

I'm going to CNM to get a Bachelor's degree. I'm getting a loan to go to the University of New Mexico. I'm going to get a Master's degree and find a good job in business.

TEDDIE CHAMBERS

When I leave high school, I plan to start getting a Bachelor's degree in fine arts, and then moving on to medical school. My dream college would be somewhere like Harvard or Yale, but I can only go to a college out of state if my parents let me leave their nest. I want to eventually become a plastic surgeon and then move to either Scottsdale, Arizona, or Galveston, Texas, or maybe Canada. After all, everyone loves Canada. When I become filthy rich, I will buy my family a mansion near where I live. Life would not be the same if they were all thousands of miles away.

FRANCES CHAVEZ

When posed with question "what will you do," the connotations frighten me. I suspect that what we do and what we strive to do may be redundant. But one could say that what we do is the most important. Well, I suppose that what we do is of little significance in the grand scheme of things. But human beings, or any singular beings, do not operate on a grand scale. We only operate within ourselves, in our own self-contained rotation. I plan on being the exception to that rule.

PHILIP CLARK

When I get out of high school, I plan on doing many great things with my life. I am currently training for the 2012 olympics in the swimming category. I would also like to go to college for directing films. I will continue my swimming career through college. After college I want to become a director of movies. I am also hoping on getting my music album picked up by Hellcat Records. My life has a lot in store for me in the next decade, but I am ready for the challenge.

FALON COLE

After high school, I would like to go to college and major in audio engineering so I can produce my music so that I will not have to rely on, or pay, anyone but myself. At the same time, I'll be making my debut in the hip-hop community in my pursuit to become the best rapper to ever touch a microphone. If I fail in my pursuit, I will not stop trying but I could at least make a decent living producing and engineering audio. I A.M. Greatness.

- Falon "Midnight" Cole

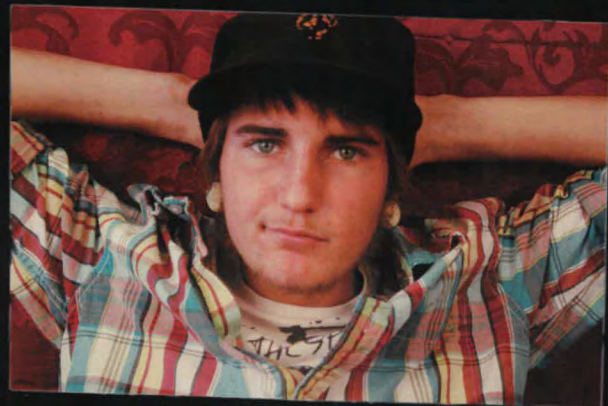

RICHARD CRUZ

My name is Richard Cruz, After graduation I plan to go on a week long trip to the enchanted land of Romania and on the way the plane will crash on a remote island. As read in Lord of the Flies we will have to revert to cannibalism and worship a talking pig head....After twenty years on the island of Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious-ville, a flying humanoid will pass over our tiny remote island and bring us all back to the safety of our homeland, AMERICA. Upon arrival to the homeland we will quickly realize that our plane not only crashed onto a remote island it was also caught in a wormhole that bent time, sending us into the year 3078, where the world is ruled by blaspheming apes. Upon leaving our star-ship the blaspheming apes will capture and enslave us, where we will spend the rest of our minuscule human lives. Upon our deaths I will take the glorious journey up the Stairway to Heaven, while others take a long trip on the Highway to HELL ...WHATEVER.

MICHAEL ELLISON

Life is uncertain, unusual and completely not understandable. No matter what you do in life, no matter how you go about things in life, simply never second guess yourself. As for me, I am not sure what life holds, whether it be death or riches. It's life, and that's all I need.

LIZETTE ESCARENO

JOSE ESTRADA

What I want to do when I get out of high school is get a job that pays good money. I still haven't decided if I want to go to college or not. I want to move back to California as well.

HOPE GARCIA

My goals are to go to the Art School in Hollywood, California and become a Mang artist and animator. My dream is to make an anime TV show with my cousin. I want to move to Japan and eventually work at Viz Media, or stay in California and work for the cartoon network.

DENISE

GARCIA

ARIANNA GOMEZ

What I plan to do is go to college at a university and forget about high school and never think about it again. Also, I plan to get a job and live in either California or Colorado...anywhere besides New Mexico because it's the nation's most boring state in the history of history. I plan to get a driver's license and get a car and drive far away from the City of Albuquerque since it's also a boring place to live in. There is nothing new here, and if you come live here, I feel your pain.

After high school, I plan to work full time on my rapping career, rapping and producing. My goal is to bring back the dying genre we call hip hop. My partner in rhyme, Alter Ego, and I are going to make it happen. My the time I'm out of high school I would think that my music should already have been noticed and I will have a fan base, so I will keep making music for whomever wants to hear it. I don't plan to work a dead end job and live paycheck to paycheck. I'm going to do something with my life, and all I see is music in my future. I'm going to reach my dreams and nothing is going to stop me.

ERIC JARAMILLO

NATASHA JARAMILLO

Gosh, darn it! Before this year I had everything set and decided, but now I have no idea what I'm going to do! My mom says she's going to take me to Japan. I can't wait! I'm also going to get an old car of my choice of my choice from my Grandpa Rudy. I'm going to ask for a VW van. Of course, by this time I'm going to be working. I'm not sure if I'm going to college (we'll see). The one thing I want to do for sure is to go on a road trip. I'm not sure if I want to do it in the Americas or in Eurasia. Oh! Hell yeah! Amsterdam! But yeah.

JON JENSEN

After high school, I will probably end up playing division 2 football at some school. After that, I want to come back to Albuquerque and be a mortician. I want to be a mortician because I think it would be sick to drive around in a Hearse and mess with dead bodies. I want to take over my dad's company. All I want is a fun, relaxing life.

When I'm done with high school, I want to be a hair and make-up artist. I want to live in California with my fiancée and have a beautiful family and get married to my fiancée on Laguna Beach.

MAKAYLA JOHNSON

When I finish high school, I want to go to the New York film academy. I will major in broadcast journalism, and live in New York. When I finish school, I would like to be an anchor on Good Morning America. If not, I will travel to Europe. I'd rather not settle down and start a family, but hey, if it happens, it happens.

The one thing I've wanted to do all my life is be an actor. If I don't make it as an actor then there is always dope to sell. The second thing I want to do is be an MC, but there is always the option of being a First Class pimp, to have the biggest cup in the world. My pimp name will be Big Daddy B. Just kidding. I'm going to do good.

After high school I want to go to college. Then I will become a cop so I can shoot people who piss me off without going to jail for it! Ha ha!

For my graduation, I want to go to Italy which I'm going to pay for myself. Then I want to become a weapons specialist and study different weapons. I want to go back to school and study pirates and their weapons. Then I want to travel the world. Everywhere I can possibly go, I will go.

MARY SILVA

MICHAEL TANK

After high school, I want to either enroll into the military as an Air Force pilot or go into construction. If I go into the military, I will go to Culinary Arts School afterwards, and become a chef. If I become a contractor, then I will work on construction and will save money to buy some nice, beautiful land, so I can build my dream restaurant with my own construction designs. This is what I plan to do because I will need a job that can support a family and / or a job that I love.

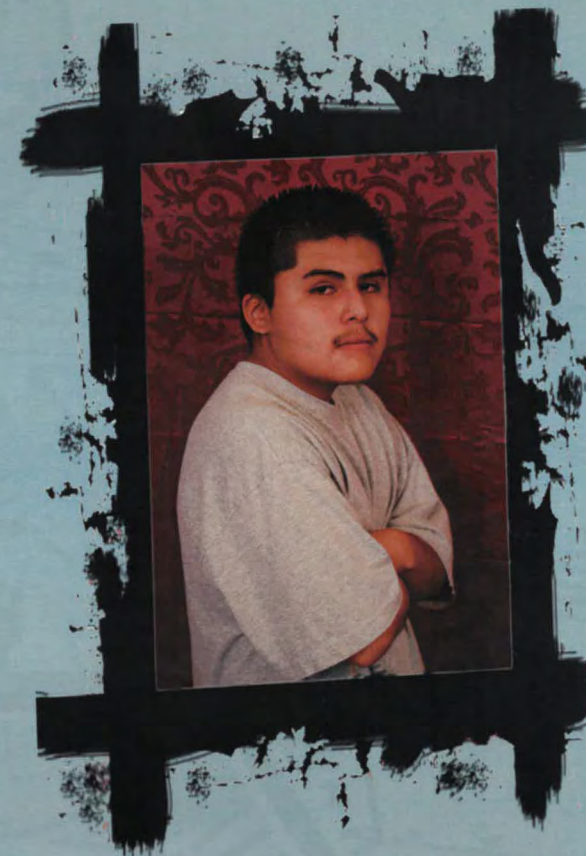

After high school, I don't know for sure what I want to do. I either want to go to school for cosmetology or take a year off to just hang out and what not. After all that, I want to move to a big city like New York or L.A. or maybe a small place out in the country like Missouri or Ohio. I want to get married and have a few kids, but that's just a maybe for now. But ya, that's what I want to do.

OLIVIA TORRES

IAN TSETHLIKAI

When I graduate high school I plan to start producing music and creating graphics for CDs, movies, and books. I want to produce music for myself and maybe collaborate with other local rappers. I know that I can accomplish this because it's been something that has interested me ever since I listened to rap. There are many other plans that I have, but I want to establish this before I do anything else.

SANDRA TUCKER

After I graduate I plan to move back to Seattle, Washington. I'm hoping to still have the motivation to continue my graphic novel series, and to get them published. I will be a waitress until the age of twenty-one, after that I will be a bar hostess or bartender, working on my comics at home when I have spare time. My cousin James, me and my friend Brandy plan to split a house/apartment. I hope to still be in touch with my close friends I have in the dry and desert, New Mexico. I have never wanted to go to college, never will.

After high school I want to get into the media communications field, either through graphic design or newspapers. I will continue my education through college classes, while maintaining a job to pay for expenses.

ANGELICA VILLASEQUEZ

MARCUS WARD

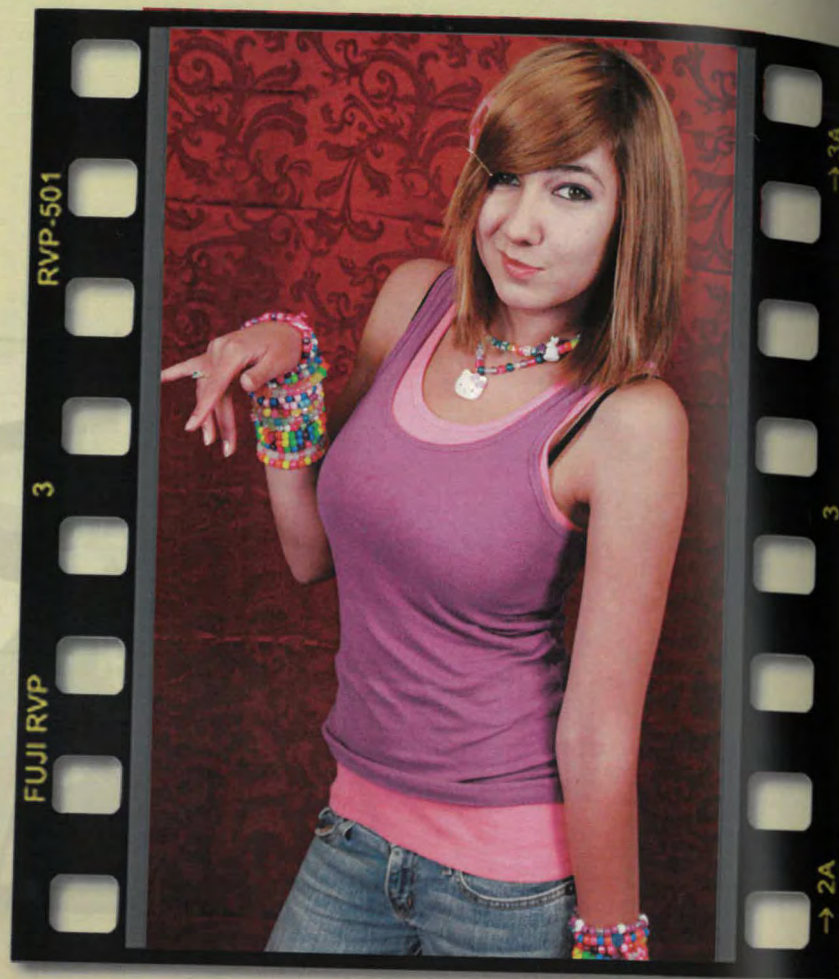

Hey there reader of this page! How's it goin'? What you up to? Well, that's cool. I can't wait to be out of school. After I get out of this place, I will most likely forget all the small educational stuff like equations and whatnot. I will surely rap and produce music. I love rapping and Hip-Hop music so I figure, "hey, I'll make my music for me and the rest of the Hip Hop heads to enjoy." In other words, what I am saying is I go to school to hang out, and practice rhyming and super dope beat-making skills. Oh yeah, and don't let me forget about my bro', Eric Jaramillo. We are the two-man, rhyme-spiller, ear-thriller crew. He is my partner in rhyme. He is in this book, flip around a bit, you will find him. All I know is that our future will be fun, and, don't worry, we won't forget about you... unless you're not important.

SKYLER WATKINS

After high school, my plan in its most simple of forms is divided into three paths. The first path would be get insanely awesome at the guitar, and just play and live the Rock 'n Roll lifestyle. This, of course, has a slim chance of actually happening, but I'm okay with that. Either way, I suppose I'll always play music for myself. Another possible "path" I would really enjoy doing is being a professional skateboarder. Or at least something in the skateboard world. I'm not too entirely sure as to what, but either way just skating, filming and traveling for free would be way cool. And finally, the most realistic plan and also the most probable will be to work somewhere in the technical side of sound. Being a guitar tech is definitely a possibility or (assuming that I accomplish my goal of having insane guitar playing possibilities), maybe just teaching guitar to the inspired, ready to learn musicians. But of course I'm not entirely sure on what "path" I'll take and these are just possible ideas. They're definitely not set in stone.

After completing high school, there are several things I would like to do, the first being to get out of Albuquerque, New Mexico. I loathe waking up and knowing that I live here, so I think it would be best to get out of here as soon as possible. Hopefully, I can move somewhere around the Los Angeles, California area. Once I get there, I want to go to college so I can get a high-paying job, even though I'm not sure what that job will be. I also wouldn't mind being famous, so that might be nice too. Once I have enough money, I'm going to travel the world. I have champagne tastes, so a lot of money will be required for my future.
